

Foaling Contract

The mare must receive Pnemabort Vaccination at the fifth, seventh, and ninth months of gestation.

RX Acres requests the mare be brought to our facility by 30 days prior to foaling due date. At 30 days prior to due date, mare will be given her yearly vaccination. If requested, RX Acres will perform this for an extra fee.

Horse care fees of $10 a day will start on the day the mare is delivered and ending on the day the mare is picked up. Mare Owner is responsible for removing the mare and foal from RX Acres in a timely manner when RX Acres agrees mare is ready for transportation.

Foaling costs of $250 will be charged. This cost includes all processes in RX Acres' normal foaling procedure.

All veterinarian expenses for the mare will be the responsibility of Mare Owner, including, but not limited to emergency call during foaling, injections, or palpation exams.

Mare Owner will deliver the mare in good health, proper weight, free of worms, and vaccinated. Mares that are not halter broken will not be accepted.

Mare Owner will provide any special care needs of the mare to RX Acres prior to delivering the mare. In order to protect the mare and employees of RX Acres, Mare Owner will disclose any unusual/undesirable personality traits of the mare. This includes biting, kicking, striking, cribbing, etc.

All parties agree RX Acres, their agents, or employees, are not liable for death, sickness, theft, or accident including consequential damages caused to the mare or foal.

RX Acres agrees to diligently watch the mare for impending parturition. RX Acres will keep Mare Owner fully informed if requested. RX Acres sits up on foal watch and remains with mares all night. RX Acres will do everything in its power to deliver a healthy foal. Mare Owner must be aware of possible outcomes of birthing and in the result of death or sickness, will hold RX Acres blameless.

All above terms regarding health and care of the mare will apply to the foal as well.

When Mare Owner signs and returns this contract it becomes a binding contract on both parties, subject to the above terms and conditions. This contract is not transferable or assignable. This contract is bound by the laws of the State of Indiana.
